Dear Parents and Carers,

Anti-Bullying Week Monday 12th – Friday 16th November 2018

As you know, our school takes the issue of bullying very seriously. In order to continue to promote the anti-bullying message, our school is taking part in Anti-Bullying week.

Anti-bullying week starts on Monday 12th November and runs until Friday 16th November. The week will start with Odd Socks Day on Monday 12th November. The children are encouraged to wear odd socks in a fun way to encourage them to think about and celebrate our differences and to respect each other's choices (donations will not be required for this day).

This year the main focus for Anti-Bullying week is RESPECT. The school will hold an assembly about respect, what this means and how we can show respect to each other. This message also reinforces one of our core school values, that being 'care and respect'.

On Thursday 15th November it is Cyberbullying Day and the message will be STOP, SPEAK, SUPPORT. The school will be holding assemblies about cyberbullying including what it is and what to do about it to help protect them online.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs S Ensor and Mrs Z Wilby
