Dear Parents / Carers,

As part of our topic "Up in Flames", we have arranged a visit from The Rainbow Theatre for Years 1 and 2 on Wednesday 21st November at 09:30am.

The theatre show will be about The Great Fire of London, which we will be learning about over the next couple of weeks. The Rainbow Theatre have asked that the children "dress up as poor citizens of London: mop caps, blouses, shawls and long, torn skirts for the girls. Dirty white shirts without colours, torn trousers for the boys."

Therefore, we would like the children to come to school dressed up on the 21st November.

If there are any problems with this, please don't hesitate to speak to your child's class teacher.

To cover the cost of this event, we are asking for a voluntary contribution of £4.20p please. (Cheques to be made payable to 'Durrington Infant School' and placed in a named envelope, or correct cash please). If we receive insufficient funds, the event unfortunately will not be able to go ahead. If there is any difficulty in meeting this contribution, please do contact Mrs. Hankin in confidence, so that we can discuss ways in which we can help.

We are sure that the children will really enjoy this event and learn a great deal from it.

Yours sincerely,

Ms Sharon Hill
